ROYAL WELSH COLLEGE
OF MUSIC & DRAMA
COLEG BRENHINOL
CERDD A DRAMA CYMRU

Access and Participation

- Students gain detailed insight into the ethos and practice of arts-based work in education and community contexts
- They also gain an understanding of issues surrounding equality, diversity and inclusion in the sector
- Students are also able to develop both their individual and team-working skills as they devise a project proposal for use in either an education and/or community setting

Assessment

A group presentation of the project proposal to a panel of assessors.

On completion of the module the student should be able to:

- Contribute to the creation of a project for use in either an educational and/or community setting
- Develop critical thinking to interpret and manage the creative process in self and others
- Work as a team to develop new ideas; dealing with complex issues to deliver a project within an agreed timeframe