

Lauretta Bloomer

British pianist Lauretta Bloomer studied piano with Yonty Solomon at the Royal College of Music in London. Her love of chamber music led her to specialise in this field at the University of Vienna where she studied with Georg Ebert and Heinz Medjimorec. Lauretta was pianist in residence at the University of Fine Arts in Banff, Canada.

Lauretta has lived for many years on the continent, during this time she formed long lasting musical partnerships with top artists with whom she still performs regularly. As a soloist, chamber musician and vocal accompanist Lauretta has performed in South East Asia, China, the USA, Australia and throughout Europe.

During her years in the Netherlands, Lauretta worked with all the major orchestras and was repetiteur for the International Opera Studio for twelve years.

She has performed at many international music festivals including the Ljetni Festival in Rovinj, Croatia, the Haydn Festival in Eisenstadt, Austria and the Gergiev Festival in Rotterdam, the Netherlands. She has given recitals in major concert venues including the Purcell Room London, Vienna Konzerthaus, Luxembourg Philharmonie, Concertgebouw Amsterdam and the Doelen, Rotterdam.

Lauretta enjoys teaching piano and coaching instrumentalists in chamber music and vocal accompaniment. She has been invited to give masterclasses in the U.S.A, Singapore, China and at Cardiff University.

Lauretta has made recordings for radio and CD, recently for Naxos together with The Virtuoso Horn Duo.

Lauretta joined the staff of the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama in 2016 as pianist for the String Department and piano teacher for the Junior Conservatoire.
