

Eryl Phillips

Eryl Phillips trained as an actor at Rose Bruford College of Speech and Drama and the Conservatoire National d'Art Dramatique. He has worked extensively as an actor in Film, Television and Theatre in both Welsh and English and was a founding member Dalier Sylw, a theatre company dedicated to new Welsh Language writing, which involved a secondment to Paines Plough.

Directing theatre led to joining Opus Television and he went on to produce and direct many series for S4C including the BAFTA Cymru award winning films, Sion a Sian and Y Twr , as well as producing the award winning, The Indian Doctor for BBC. Combining theatre and film he produced the Cinema feature The Gospel of Us, Michael Sheen's Port Talbot passion play. More recently he directed the Musical Film Albi a Noa and Pluen Wen for S4C. The series 35 Hours which he directed is now released on Britbox.

He has led the Acting for Screen modules at RWCMD for several years and trains directors for the BBC Academy and mentors directors on the soap opera Pobl y Cwm.
