

Freelance Opportunities: Drama

We are seeking to increase our team of freelance practitioners in a variety of roles across the Drama department.

Employing visiting professionals ensures our courses remain informed by latest industry practice and that our students experience working with a variety of different practitioners.

We deliver courses in Acting, Musical Theatre, Arts Management, Stage Management & Technical Theatre, Design for Performance and Scenic Construction in addition to our Young Actors Studio and Young People's Production Arts programmes.

Freelance opportunities might include:

- Directors for short-term projects and productions
- Production Supervisors & Design Supervisors short-term projects and productions
- Specialist practitioners to deliver Masterclasses and Workshops
- Tutors & Lecturers to deliver academic and skills-based classes

We are committed to creating a workforce that is representative of society. Currently, people from ethnically diverse communities, those who self-identify as disabled, neurodiverse and transgender, and Welsh speaking individuals are under-represented, so we are keen to hear from candidates from these under-represented groups.

If you are interested in working with us, please email a copy of your CV and a covering letter specifying your area of interest/expertise to drama@rwcmd.ac.uk
